An Index which contains leveraged Components causes the Components and thus the value of the Index and the price of the Product to respond disproportionately to fluctuations in the price of the Component(s) underlying assets – both up and down. Thus, the Index and simultaneously also the Product may be exposed to high upwards and downward fluctuations. Further information can be found in the section "Significant Risks" below.

Product Description

The Tracker Certificate (the "Certificate") replicates the price movements in the Underlying (adjusted by the Units, the Management Fee, the Calculation Agent Fee any expenses and taxes, and, as the case may be, the FX Rate) and is therefore in terms of risk comparable to a direct investment in the Underlying. At the Redemption Date, the Investor will receive a Cash Settlement in the Settlement Currency, as further described under Redemption.

Index Description

The Underlying is a dynamic, actively managed index (the "Index") which is discretionarily managed by the Index Sponsor and calculated by the Index Calculation Agent. The components of the Underlying (the "Components") may – subject to Index Calculation Agent's veto right – be rebalanced by the Index Sponsor on a regular basis. The Index Sponsor determines and is responsible for the composition of the Index and may add, replace or remove Components in accordance with a set of predefined rules set out in the Index Rule Book "Taktisk Allokering Röntor Index", Version ID C1F1F, dated 02/07/2025 (the "Index Rule Book").

Objective: The investment objective of the Index is to achieve positive net performance each year by regularly changing its Components. The Index invests in ETFs, Interest Rate Futures, FX Forwards, and Cash.

Universe: The Index universe consists of eligible Components and may include Cash Instruments, ETFs, Futures, FX Forwards, as determined by the Index Sponsor and subject to the restrictions defined in the Index Rule Book.

Leverage: The Index may include leveraged Components the details of which can be found in their individual product documentation. Leveraged Components are subject to margin requirements at the discretion of the Calculation Agent. Additional information can be found in the section "Significant Risks" below and in the Index Rule Book.

Distributions: Net distributions with respect to Components (after deduction of any expenses and taxes) will lead to an adjustment of the Index (as specified in the Index Rule Book).

The Index represents a hypothetical portfolio. There is no obligation on the Index Calculation Agent, the Issuer or any other party to purchase and/or hold any Components of the Index and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership interest. The Index is merely comprised of Components, the performance of which will be used as a reference point for the purposes of calculating the value of the Index. The Issuer shall be free to choose how to invest or further proceed with any proceeds of the issuance of any of the Certificates.

References to any rebalancing of the Index or addition, adjustment, substitution, replacement or removal of Components should not be construed as imposing an obligation on the Issuer, the Index Calculation Agent or any person actually to acquire or dispose of any securities, investments, assets or other property but are references to the change in, and relate solely to the calculation of, the value of the Index, which is relevant for the determination of any amount payable in respect of the Certificate.

Upon request, the Index Rule Book and the latest composition of the Index are available free of charge from the Lead Manager (Leonteq Securities AG, Europaallee 39, 8004 Zurich, Switzerland or termsheet@leonteq.com).

REDEMPTION

The Investor is entitled to receive from the Issuer, subject to an Extraordinary Termination, on the Redemption Date per Product a Cash Settlement in the Settlement Currency corresponding to the value of the Underlying on the Final Fixing Date adjusted by the Units_t, the Management Fee, the Calculation Agent Fee and, as the case may be, the FX Rate. This amount equals Value_t on the Final Fixing Date, where Value_t is calculated according to the following formula and reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent.

Index Value_t	Means the official closing price of the Underlying on Scheduled Trading Day t as published by the Index Calculation Agent, and as reasonable determined by the Calculation Agent.
FX Rate_t	Means the prevailing exchange rate on the Scheduled Trading Day t as reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent. The exchange rate is expressed as units of the Settlement Currency per one unit of currency of the Underlying (if both currencies are identical then FX Rate _t is equal to 1.0).
Units_t	Means the notional units of the Underlying per Product on Scheduled Trading Day t. Provided Scheduled Trading Day t is not an Observation Date: Units_t = Units_{t-1}

If Scheduled Trading Day t is an Observation Date:

Where Index Value_{t^*} means Index Value_t of the Underlying on Scheduled Trading Day t , adjusted by any costs incurred by the Issuer or a hedging party thereof for unwinding risk reducing hedging transactions relating to the Issuer's obligations under the Product, as reasonable determined by the Calculation Agent. Units_t are rounded in accordance with the Rounding Convention.

Following the adjustment of Units_t by AMF_t , AMF_t is reset to zero.

Following the adjustment of Units_t by ACAF_t , ACAF_t is reset to zero.

AMF_t Means the accrued management fees on Scheduled Trading Day t and is determined by the Calculation Agent as follows:

$$\text{AMF}_t = \text{AMF}_{t-1} + \text{Value}_{t-1} \times \text{MF} \times \text{DayCount}_t \text{ and } \text{AMF}_0 = 0.00$$

ACAF_t Means the accrued calculation agent fees on Scheduled Trading Day t and is determined by the Calculation Agent as follows:

$$\text{ACAF}_t = \text{ACAF}_{t-1} + \text{Value}_{t-1} \times \text{CAF} \times \text{DayCount}_t \text{ and } \text{ACAF}_0 = 0.00$$

Day Count_t Means the actual number of calendar days between (and including) Scheduled Trading Day $t-1$ to (and excluding) the current Scheduled Trading Day t divided by 360.

Rounding Convention Numbers are rounded down to five (5) decimal places.

Scheduled Trading Day t Means any calendar day on which the Index Calculation Agent is scheduled to publish a value for the Underlying. The Initial Fixing Date corresponds to Scheduled Trading Day 0 and for any subsequent Scheduled Trading Day variable t is incremented by one (1.0).

Initial Fixing Level (Index Value₀) Means the official closing price of the Underlying on the Initial Fixing Date as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Interim Payments The Index Sponsor may, subject to the approval by the Index Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion, request the disbursement to the Investor of interest, dividend or other return on capital payments occurred in respect of a Component (the "Interim Payment") by sending a duly signed notice to the Index Calculation Agent identifying the payment date (any such date being an "Interim Payment Date") and amount (any such amount being an "Interim Payment"), provided the necessary cash at the Interim Payment Date is available. Interim Payment are Cash Settlements only. If a specific Interim Payment Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day, then the following Scheduled Trading Day will be deemed to be an Interim Payment Date. Any such Interim Payment will result in a corresponding reduction of Index Value.

Extraordinary Termination The Issuer has the right to call all Certificates with immediate effect, without prior notice (the "Extraordinary Termination"). Such Extraordinary Termination will prevail any Investor's Termination Right and/or Issuer's Termination Right, if applicable.

The Issuer may exercise its right for Extraordinary Termination:

- based on Hedging Disruption and other provisions as set out in paragraph "Termination and Cancellation due to Illegality, Impracticality, Illiquidity, Impossibility, Increased Cost of Hedging, Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Collateralisation (TCM Products and ETPs), Changed Secured Financing Ability, Negative Value or Materially Increased Other Costs" of the Programme; or
- if the agreement, or any part thereof concerning the Index, between the Index Sponsor and the Issuer and/or the Index Calculation Agent (or an affiliate thereof) is terminated; or
- if the Index in whole or the calculation of the index value are terminated, as the case may be.

In case of an Extraordinary Termination the Issuer will pay to the Investor a Cash Settlement in the Settlement Currency that shall be the fair market value of the Product, taking into account the event that led to the Extraordinary Termination, less any costs and withholdings levied onto the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates for unwinding its hedge positions, all as determined by the Calculation Agent in its discretion. Such amount shall be paid to the Investor 5 Business Days following completion and receipt in full of the proceeds for all disinvestments in all relevant hedge positions, as reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent in its discretion.

Issuer's Termination Right The Issuer has the right to call all Certificates for early redemption (the "Termination Right") at any time with a 15 Business Days (prior to the respective Final Fixing Date) notice by announcement (the "Termination Announcement") on the Lead Manager's website, all in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions of the Programme. The Termination Announcement will specify the Final Fixing Date and the respective Redemption Date. Following the announcement, the Certificates will be redeemed on the Redemption Date for a value equal to the Value_t on the Final Fixing Date as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Investor's Termination Right Each Investor has an annual right, on 02/07 and for the first time on 02/07/2026, to call the Certificates for redemption (such day the Investor's Termination Right becomes effective being the Final Fixing Date, as defined herein) by delivering a duly completed and signed Redemption Notice to the Paying Agent in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions of the Programme (the Redemption Notice to be received by the Paying Agent no later than 12:00 am CET on the 15th Business Day preceding the respective Final Fixing Date). Thereafter, the Certificates will be redeemed on the Redemption Date for a value equal to the Value_t on the Final Fixing Date as determined by the Calculation Agent.

SIGNIFICANT RISKS

Prospective Investors should ensure that they fully understand the nature of this Product and the extent of their exposure to risks and they should consider the suitability of this Product as an investment in the light of their own circumstances and financial condition. Products involve a high degree of risk, including the potential risk of expiring worthless. Potential Investors should be prepared in certain circumstances to sustain a total loss of the capital invested to purchase this Product as well as the transaction costs. Prospective Investors shall consider the following important risk factors and read the section "Risk Factors" of the Programme for details on all other risk factors to be considered.

This is a structured product involving derivative components. Investors should make sure that their advisors have verified that this Product is suitable for their portfolio taking into account the investor's financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives.

The terms and conditions of the Product may be subject to adjustments during the lifetime of the Product as set out in the Programme.

Product Specific Risks: Unless this Product is capital protected, investors may lose some or all of their investment as well as the transaction costs as they are fully exposed to the performance of the Underlyings. The Product does not confer any claim to receive rights and/or payments of the Underlying, such as dividend payments, unless explicitly stated in the documentation governing the Product. Please refer to the Product Documentation as regards the further Product specific risk factors to be taken into account.

Index Administration Specific Risks: The Product provides exposure to a discretionary Index managed by the Index Sponsor. The Index Sponsor has a significant scope of discretion in terms of the Index' composition and will determine the initial composition of the Index and subsequent adjustments thereof, excluding adjustments and substitutions made by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the Index Rule Book or as defined herein and save where a rebalancing request of the Index Sponsor has been declined by the Index Calculation Agent. The performance of the Index and hence of the Product depends, inter alia, on the quality of the Index Sponsor's decisions as regards the composition of the Index (excluding adjustments and substitutions made by Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the Index Rule Book or as defined herein). Investors need to do their own due diligence with respect to the Index Sponsor.

Index Performance: Neither the Calculation Agent nor the Index Calculation Agent take any responsibility for the composition of, adjustment (excluding adjustments not due to a Non-Compliance Event and substitutions made by Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the Index Rule Book or as defined herein) to and the performance of the Index. Unless required by applicable laws and regulations, neither the Calculation Agent nor the Index Calculation Agent are obliged to verify compliance with the index rules set out in the Index Rule Book or to intervene in case of non-compliance with the index rules set out in the Index Rule Book.

Leverage: The Underlying of the Product is an Index in which Components may have a leverage effect. Leveraged products are highly complex and an investment in leveraged products is only suitable for experienced investors who are in a position to evaluate and understand the risks associated with both leveraged indices and leveraged products accordingly. Leveraged Components cause the value of the Index and the price of the Product to respond disproportionately to fluctuations in the price of the Component(s)' underlying assets – both up and down. Thus, the Index and simultaneously also the Product may be exposed to high upward and downward fluctuations.

Due to the magnifying effect of leverage the Investors could receive an amount considerably higher than originally invested (excluding any transaction or other costs). On the downside, the effect of leverage amplifies potential losses and may lead to a considerably higher loss of the investment compared to an investment in a non-leveraged Index. This might lead to a partial or even a total loss of the investment, even if a Stop Loss Event described below has occurred.

Where the Index maintains positions in leveraged Components the Index Calculation Agent reserves the right to reduce or eliminate the degree of leverage. In case the Index Sponsor fails to provide advice with respect to such adjustments, the Index Calculation Agent reserves the right to amend the Index composition in its discretion in order to reduce or eliminate exposure to one or more units of leveraged Components in a commercially reasonable manner. Such exposure reduction may also result in the adjustment of units of other Components. The Index Sponsor, but not the Index Calculation Agent, shall bear full responsibility for any such adjustment made by the Index Calculation Agent.

The Product has a stop-loss function to prevent that the leverage effect pushes the Product to a value below zero. If a Stop Loss Event has occurred, the final underlying Index value and consequently also the Product value will therefore be considerably lower than the Issue Price. Such value will be reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the relevant Product Documentation and thereafter paid out to the investors, provided it is not zero. Following a Stop Loss Event the Products is early terminated and there is no possibility for any recovery. This might lead to a partial or even a total loss of the investment in the Product.

Diversification of the Index: If there are no minimum diversification criteria for the Index, as defined in the Index Rule Book, the Underlying may comprise of one single Component.

Issuer Risk: Investors are exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer. If the Issuer is not able to make a payment or becomes insolvent, investors could lose some or all of their investment.

Credit Risk of Issuing Parties: The Investor's exposure to the credit risk of the Issuer of this Product is only mitigated due to collateralisation. In order to collateralize this Product, collateral is being deposited at SIX SIS Ltd. Following a so called Realization Event, e.g. in case of insolvency of the Issuer, the deposited securities will be used for the Redemption of the Product. For further information please see the section "Information about TCM-Collateralisation" below.

Secondary Market: The Issuer and/or the Lead Manager or any third party appointed by the Issuer, as applicable, intends, under normal market conditions, to provide bid and offer prices for the Products on a regular basis in accordance with the SIX Directive on Debt Securities with Specific Structures. However, the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager, as applicable, reserve the right to cease the posting of bid and offer prices upon the occurrence and for the duration of any exceptional market circumstances. In special market situations, where the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager is/are unable to enter into hedging transactions, or where such transactions are very difficult to enter into, the spread between the bid and offer prices may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager.

Market Risk: Market risk may have a negative impact on the value of and the return on an investment in the Product. Market risk is the risk associated with the effect of changes in market factors such as interest and foreign exchange rates, equity and commodity prices, credit spreads or implied volatilities, on the value of assets and liabilities held for both the short and long term. Market risk may also lead to an early redemption of the Product (e.g. in the event of a hedging disruption).

Liquidity Risk: The Issuer or, as the case may be, the guarantor or a third party appointed by the Issuer or guarantor, if any, intends to act as market maker in relation to the Product and it will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide indicative bid and offer prices for the Product on a regular basis under normal market conditions. However, such market maker does not have an obligation to provide prices for the Product. Liquidity of the Product in the secondary market may be limited and an active trading market for the Product may not develop. Accordingly, investors may not be able to sell their Product.

Currency Risk: If the investor's reference currency is different from the currency, in which the Product is denominated, the investor bears the currency risk between the two currencies. The fluctuations in exchange rates could have an adverse effect on the value of or return on an investment in the Product, even if the redemption amount would otherwise provide for a positive return. If the Underlyings are calculated in a currency different from the Currency of the Product, the conversion into the Currency of the Product will be carried out at the relevant exchange rate.

Early Termination and Reinvestment Risk: The Product may be redeemed prior to its maturity (be it by declaration of the issuer or as a result of certain events specified in the terms of the Product) and investors must consider that in case of such an early redemption, investors will not receive any further coupon payments after the occurrence of the early redemption and the early redemption amount may be significantly below the issue / purchase price paid and the redemption amount payable at maturity. Investors may not be able to reinvest the early redemption amount in a financial instrument with the same profit potential and additional transaction costs may be incurred as a consequence of a reinvestment of the early redemption amount.

Illiquidity of Underlying: One or, if applicable, more of the Underlyings might be or become illiquid over the lifetime of the Product. Illiquidity of an Underlying might lead to larger bid/offer spreads of the Product and/or to an extended time period for buying and/or selling the Underlying respective to acquire, unwind or dispose of the hedging transaction(s) or asset(s) or to realise, recover or remit the proceeds of such hedging transaction(s) or asset(s) which might implicate a postponed redemption or delivery and/or a modified redemption amount, as reasonably determined by the Calculation Agent.

INFORMATION ABOUT TCM-COLLATERALISATION

Triparty Collateral Management Products ("TCM Products") are structured products with a reduced issuer risk. This protection is provided by means of a collateral pledge. Investors thus profit from increased protection on the invested capital.

The Collateral Provider has entered into a security agreement (as amended or replaced from time to time, the "TCM Security Agreement") and TCM Products are collateralised in accordance with the terms of the TCM Security Agreement. The Collateral Provider will provide collateral to secure the value of TCM Products, whereby such collateral can consist among others of the securities that are the direct or indirect underlyings of TCM Products.

The legal position of the Investors and of all involved parties in relation to the collateralisation of TCM Products is determined by the provisions of the TCM Security Agreement. The Issuer shall, upon request, provide the TCM Security Agreement to the Investors free of charge. A copy of the TCM Security Agreement may be obtained from the Lead Manager at Europaallee 39, 8004 Zurich (Switzerland), or via telephone (+41 58 800 1111*), fax (+41-(0)58-8001010) or email (termsheet@leonteq.com). Please note that all calls made to numbers marked with an asterisk (*) are recorded. By calling such number, your consent to the recording is deemed given.

More detailed information regarding TCM collateralisation can also be found in the Programme.

The costs with respect to the collateralisation of TCM Products as well as the borrowing costs of the products' collateral may be taken into account for the pricing of TCM Products and may therefore be borne by the Investors, as the case may be.

The payment to the Investors in case of a so-called Realisation Event may be delayed for factual or legal reasons.

To the extent the calculation of the current value of a TCM Product, as published daily by the Collateral Provider on SIX Financial Information, proves to be incorrect, the collateralisation of the TCM Product may be insufficient.

This TCM Product does not constitute a collective investment scheme pursuant to the Federal Act on Collective Investment Schemes (CISA) and does not require authorisation or supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA.
