Final Fixing Level

Redemption Method

Closing prices of Underlyings on the relevant exchanges on 4 February 2028

If the price of none of the Underlyings has traded at or below the Knock-in Level between the Initial Fixing Date and the Final Fixing Date, redemption will be 100% of the Denomination independent of the closing price of the Underlyings on the Final Fixing Date.

If the price of one or more of the Underlyings has traded at or below the Knock-in Level between the Initial Fixing Date and the Final Fixing Date ("Knock-in Event"),

- redemption will be 100% of Denomination if all Underlyings close at or higher than the Cap Level on the Final Fixing Date or
- the investor will receive a physical delivery of the ETF (Exchange Traded Fund) with the worst relative performance (between Initial Fixing Date and Final Fixing Date). The number of Underlyings per Denomination is defined according to Ratio. In this case, the applicable Ratio will not be determined until the Final Fixing Date (fractions will be paid in cash, no cumulation).

The Coupon(s) will be paid out on the defined Coupon Payment Date(s) independent of the performance of the Underlyings.

The product is currency hedged. In the case of physical delivery, exchange rate changes are offset in determining the Ratio (number of Underlyings to be delivered), so that they have no impact on the performance of the product (Quantity Adjusted Option, abbreviated as "Quanto"). The equivalent value of the redemption (i.e. the value of the Underlyings to be delivered together with the cash settlement of the fractions) in the product currency thus only reflects the performance of the Underlying to be delivered. Gains or losses due to exchange rate changes are not passed on.

If the delivery of the ETF is economically or actually impossible, the Issuer reserves the right to deliver a similar ETF or, if necessary, to make a Redemption of the Denomination minus the percentage difference between the Initial Fixing Value and the Final Fixing Value of the Underlying with the largest negative performance instead of physical delivery.

Underlying with the worst performance	Corresponding ETF/SIN/Bloomberg/Reference exchange/Reference currency

Nikkei 225® Index	iShares Nikkei 225 UCITS/IE00B52MJD48/CSNKY SE/SIX Swiss Exchange/JPY

The number of ETFs to be delivered per Denomination is calculated as follows:

$$N = \frac{\text{Denomination}}{\text{Index IF}} \times \frac{\text{Index FF}}{\text{ETF FF}} \times \text{FX}$$

whereby:

Index IF: Initial Fixing Value of the Underlying with the worst performance

Index FF: Final Fixing Value of the Underlying with the worst performance

ETF FF: closing price on the Final Fixing Date of the ETF corresponding to the Underlying with the worst performance

FX: Interesting exchange rate achieved on the Final Fixing Date, 17:00 CEST, which is used for the conversion of the currency of the Underlying asset with the worst performance into the reference currency of the ETF.

The Coupon will be paid out on the redemption date independent of the performance of the Underlying.

The calculation of the Redemption is independent of any changes in foreign exchange rates between CHF and the currency of the Underlying (Quanto Style).
